

Prewrite/Brainstorm

Realistic fiction is a story that could be true but is not. It has two main purposes: to tell an interesting story and to send an important message (theme). Use the graphic organizer to write a realistic fiction story. Read the information and then fill in the boxes with your ideas.

Day 1

Draft

Write your realistic fiction story. Follow the graphic organizer you made to help you describe the problem, the three events, and the solution.

Day 2

Revise

Read your realistic fiction story. How could you improve it? Do you need to add more details? Do you need to rearrange the order of events? Rewrite your story.

Day 3

Proofread

Read your story again. Do you see any capitalization errors? Are all of the words spelled correctly? Did you use the correct punctuation and grammar? Use proofreading marks to correct the sentences.

- Capitalization mistakes
- Grammar mistakes
- Punctuation mistakes
- Spelling mistakes

Day 4
