

Underline with three short lines the first letter of words that need to be capitalized.

1. did the movie around the world in 80 days win an academy award in 1956?

Draw a line under the complete predicate. Circle the predicate verb.

2. Jayla and I cheered for our favorite team.

Add quotation marks, capitalization, underlines, and punctuation where necessary in the sentence.

3. The Olympic Games were held in Stockholm Sweden in 1912 replied valerie

Circle the correct words in the sentence.

4. My library book was (dew/due) last (week/weak).

Underline with three short lines the first letter of words that need to be capitalized.

1. robert burns, the poet, wrote "auld lang syne."

Draw a line under the complete predicate. Circle the predicate verb.

2. Chris dropped one more quarter into the machine.

Add quotation marks, capitalization, underlines, and punctuation where necessary in the sentence.

3. Monica yelled Wow did you see that car

Circle the correct words in the sentence.

4. Did those (ate/eight) (flowers/flours) come from your yard?

Underline with three short lines the first letter of words that need to be capitalized.

1. does grandpa get the chicago sun-times or the chicago tribune?

Draw a line under the complete predicate. Circle the predicate verb.

2. The clerk examined the jacket carefully.

Add quotation marks, capitalization, underlines, and punctuation where necessary in the sentence.

3. Look out screamed Andrew

Circle the correct words in the sentence.

4. Fiona (scent/sent) her (aunt/ant) a birthday card.

Underline with three short lines the first letter of words that need to be capitalized.

1. we're going to an italian restaurant on friday night after we read strega nona.

Draw a line under the complete predicate. Circle the predicate verb.

2. Maddie's dog, Bandit, is a frisky animal.

Add quotation marks, capitalization, underlines, and punctuation where necessary in the sentence.

3. Bobbi our class president took charge of today's meeting

Circle the correct words in the sentence.

4. (Too/To/Two) dollars is a (fare/fair) price.

Name _____

Using proofreading marks, mark the first letter of words that need to be capitalized and add punctuation to the sentences.

1. i received the book the life cycle book of cats from grandmother.
2. will judge j.t. ormand preside today
3. dad, the los angeles times was not delivered this morning said dave
4. dions deli carries turkish candy remarked penny

Draw a line under the complete predicate in the sentences. Circle the predicate verb.

5. My teacher asked for volunteers.
6. The birds ate all of the seeds.
7. Rick and I are in the same race.

Circle the correct words in the sentences.

8. Dad (sent/scent) Mom (flowers/flours) for her birthday.
9. We have (too/two) more (weeks/weaks) until this is (due/dew).
10. Can you imagine having (eight/ate) uncles and (ants/aunts)?